

Welcome to our newsletter. Keep up-to-date with the latest from the Dugong and Seagrass Conservation Project - A global effort to conserve dugongs and their seagrass habitats.

Check out our new website!

The Dugong and Seagrass Conservation Project officially launch www.dugongconservation.org on Sunday 22 May 2016. The site features the Project - highlighting the 38 projects in 8 countries and incorporating social media capabilities into the site. Visit and visit often.

Lay your eyes on our new Project Video \(https://youtu.be/Bh0yC5PNZD4\) - a short documentary shot at our inception workshop in Sri Lanka. Featuring the Dugong and Seagrass Conservation Project and some of our project partners and technical advisers. See it on our new YouTube channel. Have a video of your own? Share it with us - we will be happy to promote it.

New Social Media Channels

Find the Project on (1) Facebook; (2) Instagram; (3) Twitter; and (4) Flickr. All of which of which are designed to help us help each other, keep up to date and in the loop. Like, re-tweet, upload and post today!

Upcoming events

Keep track of upcoming events on our events calendar. Next up? A health assessment training course for marine endangered species...apply to the organizer before 31 May 2016. Have an upcoming event? Be sure to let us know, and we will post it.

This Project is executed by the Mohamed bin Zayed Species Conservation Fund, with financing from the GEF, implementation support by UNEP and technical support from the CMS Dugong MoU Secretariat.

Contact:

For project related/general enquiries, please contact: enquiries@mbzfund.org
Please contribute to the Project by sending news updates, articles, photos and comment to: media@mbzfund.org

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

This email was sent to Test Email Address
why did I get this? unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences
Dugong & Seagrass Conservation Project · PO Box 131112 · Abu Dhabi · United Arab Emirates

